Hello,

Carmen is ready to present the project proposal by the Russians. Would either of you be interested in being present for that?

Hi Carmen,

Attached is an image of the street where the Farmer's Market takes place. It should give the artists an idea of the environment in the area. The street is bordered by two huge flower markets which operate as one. There is a crosswalk in the middle of the street connecting both entrances.

I've also attached three photos of what the farmer's market itself looks like. You can view a video of the market in action here.

The dimensions we have in mind are 10'X10'. These are the sizes of the booths you see in the photos. The piece would be set up in a booth space and it is possible there would be vendors on either or both sides of it. If the artists feel like they would need more space please let us know and we can try to accommodate.

As you can see in the various photos and video, foot traffic varies weekend-to-weekend, but in general there is a good flow of pedestrian traffic that goes through here. The artwork would have to be appropriate for all ages and obviously would be outdoors.

As I've mentioned before, ideally we would like to be able to move the piece around the district and "show" it more than once, but it is not an absolute requirement. We do however require that it be interactive in some way.

The Wall Farmer's Market operates every Saturday in the Flower District which is part of the LA Fashion District, between 7th and 8th Streets on Wall St.

Best,
Ariana
